August 13th, 1941

Mrs. Manley:

I fully intended to get this letter off to you yesterday, but was too tired. We arrived home at 8:30 Tuesday morning after being on the road since twelve noon on Monday.

Here is the information on Atlantic City. There is no rent to pay for the park. Game to be called at nine. Date August 27th. Sponsored by the Grand Lodge Convention Committee. Prices: 85c grandstand. 55c bleachers, including taxes. The man to handle publicity is: Ambrose Briscoe, 1613 Artie Avenue, Atlantic City.

As soon as I see Cum, will get cards to Briscoe. Am leaving for Columbus Thursday but will be back in Pittsburgh sometime Monday. If you have any reason to get in touch with me, will be at 156 North Lexington Avenue.

Briscoe says that Friday night has been optioned to the Athletic Committee, and when I find out what Cum intends to stage, will let you know.

Yours very truly,

Clark
